

OBJECTIVE

The Structured Maturity And Rating Trend Municipal Strategy seeks to generate a predictable stream of federally tax-free income emphasizing principal preservation through a controlled duration bond portfolio. The assets are primarily invested in tax-exempt bonds, but certain portfolios include taxable issues to enhance total return and maximize after-tax yield where appropriate. Excess return opportunities are achieved through security selection based on several key considerations, including individual bond structure, sector selection and rotation, credit and yield curve exposure, and most importantly, duration management.

Inception Date: July 31, 2009

PROCESS

The S.M.A.R.T. XO Municipal Strategy seeks exposure to all points of the benchmark yield curve, strategically overweighting maturity, structure, rating, and taxability to emphasize relative value in the market. There is an emphasis in lower rated bonds for shorter duration investments, with improving credit quality as duration increases. We seek to further control volatility through duration management and optionality.

Investments in debt securities typically decrease in value when interest rates rise. This risk is usually greater for longer-term debt securities. Investment in lower-rated and non-rated securities presents a greater risk of loss to principal and interest than higher-rated securities.
